Happy 90th Birthday Mr. Ted Weber

Theodore S. Weber

Today we help Mr. Ted Weber celebrate his 90th Birthday at the reception following in his honor. The St. Vincent de Paul Committee hopes to see many parishioners joining in this celebration for a man who has been one source of inspiration for them as they continue to further the work he and men like Bill Weber and George Ennen began in this parish. The committee hopes that the savings fund begun today in Ted's honor will be a lasting tribute to a man who has always been concerned for the needs of others. Our Committee promises to further this concern as we continue to help those who ask for our aid. God bless you, Ted, for sharing with so many.

Week 5

Additional pledges _____ $250.00
Additional received _____ $2,518.00

Next Sunday, Easter Day, marks the end of the Parish Improvement Drive. Some have asked if it is too late to make a pledge? The answer, of course, is - it's never too late. The parish serves everyone. We hope everyone can help the parish!

Just A Word ...

by Fr. Harvey

The spring rains were showering the earth abundantly last Monday as we brought grandma to her final rest in Chelsea's Mt. Olivet Cemetery. While the death of winter was being overpowered by the new life of springtime, we planted grandma's body in hope of resurrection - the Eternal Spring. I do not really know how to say 'thank you' to all of you who shared in my family's loss - the concerned words you spoke to me on Sunday, the visitations some made at the funeral home, your presence at the Funeral Mass and dinner and the many cards others have sent since my grandmother's burial have helped me experience the new life of Easter just a little ahead of schedule. The memorial offerings that some have so generously shared will be placed in St. John's Heritage Fund. I think my grandmother would like it that way since she was familiar with St. John's Parish not only since her eldest grandson was assigned here but also from the time many years ago, when she was a college student at the Normal. Thanks for sharing this moment.

The Week of Weeks, Holy Week, is upon us. Those who have seriously entered into the spirit of this Lenten season will want to celebrate the mystery of these holy days. The Holy Week Schedule is printed again in this paper. Please note the times of Holy Week liturgies as well as the time allotted for the Sacrament of Penance. Note that NO confessions will be heard

Holy Week in the Classroom

Holy Week is one of the richest and most deeply prayerful weeks in the church. Consequently, we here at the Religious Education Center are helping the students not just to learn about and talk about the days of Holy Week but are trying to have the students experience in a similar way the events that Jesus went through from Palm Sunday to Easter Sunday. This week we covered Palm Sunday, Holy Thursday and Good Friday. Next Wednesday we will experience Ho;y Saturday and Easter Sunday.

We suggest that you take some time to talk over with your children the beauty and meaning of this most important season of the year!

The Seven Last Words

"Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do."
"Today shalt thou be with Me in Paradise."
"Woman, behold thy son!
Behold thy Mother!"
"My God, my God, why
hast thou forsaken Me;"
"I thirst."
"It is finished."
"Father, into Thy hands
I commend My spirit."

after 12 Noon on Holy Saturday. We have had ample occasion for the celebration of Penance throughout this Lenten season and during the time of the Mission. I hope most everyone took advantage of the opportunities. If you missed and are not able to be served by the present schedule, you may come to the rectory, as usual, anytime.

On Holy Thursday morning, all of our Confirmation candidates will travel to the Cathedral in Lansing to join in the celebration of the Chrism Mass. Bishop Povish will be joined at this special Liturgy by all the priests and deacons of the diocese as we commemorate the institution of the priesthood by Jesus Christ and bless the oils which are used in sacramental celebrations throughout the year in all parish churches. Since our Confirmation candidates will be sealed by the sacred chrism consecrated during this annual Liturgy, we felt it was appropriate for our students to attend the Chrism Mass. Lunch will be provided. Any adult, especially one who has not been confirmed and is planning to be confirmed on May 1st here, is most welcome to make the trip with us on the bus.

Boy Scout Request;

Troop 240 is in need of some men who would like the challenge of working with boys ages 11 through 15. The troop has leaders but need men to help with various activities such as fishing and camping weekends, etc. If you are willing to lend an hour once a week or once a month to help guide a boy, call Joan Gillman at 482-3754 or Eleonore Moore at 482-8130.

Intercessory Prayer

"Hosanna! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified.

Blessed be Jesus forever."

My Jesus, as you entered into Jerusalem on that first Palm Sunday, we ask you Jesus to enter our hearts today so that you may be glorified, worshipped and adored. Lord, we know that you are the truth and the life and that no one comes to the Father but by you.

Jesus, in your love we lift up to you

We ask your blessings on our coming Holy Week

Bless your servants taking part in making Holy Week a special Holy Week in our Parish.

Heal our sick, comfort the lonely, bring joy to the aged and shut-ins.

For those who have not taken Lent seriously the Lord says: "Could you not watch one hour with Me?". Watch and pray so that you may not enter into temptation. The spirit indeed is willing but the flesh is weak.

May the peace of the risen Lord be with all of us ... Now and forever.

Planning Marriage???

Couples intending to marry within the next six months are kindly requested to attend Pre-Marriage Seminars held at Holy Trinity Chapel, 511 W. Forest. Participation in the Pre-Marriage Seminar fulfills the requirement for pre-marriage counselling. The next seminar will be held April 30-May 1. Couples are asked to pre-register for this valuable preparation by calling the Chapel (482-1400).

Challenges Met

Marriage Encounter

We had the opportunity to attend the March Marriage Encounter at Adrian. In a completely non-threatening, relaxed atmosphere we were encouraged to grow into a deeper love for each other and God.

We shared our hopes, fears and joys only with each other and grew even closer through understanding.

If you could possibly attend the May Encounter we urge you to do so. What a beautiful way to get into Spring!

Retreat

During the weekend of March 25, 26 & 27, the following men of St. John's, St. Ursula's and neighboring parishes took time out of their very busy lives to make a retreat at Manresa, a Jesuit Retreat House in Bloomfield Hills, Michigan. To say that it was two days well spent would be a gross understatement, and we hope that next year our ranks will grow to twice the group we had this year.

Are You Reading?

Good reading awaits you in our parish reading racks. The following indicates items of interest from just a few of the periodicals and newspapers.

In the April issue of Today's Parish an exciting, new At-Home Retreat program for homemakers is described. Helping Parishioners Experience God's Presence shows how the cursillo, marriage encounter, and charismatic renewal are bringing Catholics closer to parish community involvement.

rite of reconciliation by Reverend Patrick Kaler. J. W. Oppitz tells the "Under 21" crowd how to talk less and say more in his Five Magic Keys to Communication.

The April 2 issue of America is concerned with the coverage of university press books. The April 9 issue features an article by Robert J. Henle, former president of Georgetown University, on the history of the relationships between the Vatican and the American universities. Ensuing issues contain provocative editorial comments on current topics, highly regarded review of new books, Richard Blake's perceptive criticism of films and television.

The April issues of Our Sunday Visitor feature articles by Fr. Charles Gallagher, prominent in the Marriage Encounter movement. Other popular writers in the Catholic field who appear regularly are Fr. Robert Fox, Tom Lennon, Dale Francis, Maggie Bunson, Russell Kirk, Fr. Richard Hire, Teresa Bloomingdale, Fr. Albert Nevins and many others.

Baby-sitting Room

Over the past two years, Mrs. Frances Schenher has spent several hundred dollars outfitting the baby-sitting rooms so that they would be presentable for the children on Sunday mornings and other times when needed for parish functions. I feel that our parishioners, especially those who use this baby-sitting service, should know that all of this purchasing has been done by her and has not cost the parish a cent. However, I feel that if all would chip in, this endeavor could be furthered and not be up to one person. Needs are for disposable diapers, weekly cookies, toys that are no longer in use at home or that are broken and can be fixed, children's books that are no longer read at home, etc., etc. All of these things she has been purchasing and I know that there must be many parishioners who have items that can be used or who would be willing to bring them for use. Drop items off at the baby-sitting room on Sunday mornings. Mrs. Schenher and Mrs. Lois Kelly come each Wednesday evening to clean and to wash bedding, doll clothes, etc. so that everything is in good order weekly. They can shelve your items then and have them on hand when needed. The children really look forward to new toys and to the cookie treat.

You will notice that Mr. Schenher painted the room quite awhile back so it is bright and pleasing. Also, many of the tables and chairs as well as the bassinets have been painted so that things will be colorful for the children. We thank Mr. and Mrs. Schenher, their daughter, Denise, and Mrs. Kelly for their concern for this project and we hope that many more youngsters will be able to enjoy these rooms and get to know each other.

We are in need of some baby-sitters for the Seder Meal on Wednesday, April 6th from 6:30 to 8:00 p.m. Any offers can be made to Sister Carol at 483-3360.
